Moments to Remember

WORKING, STUDYING, PLAYING—YOU HAD A BUSY YEAR. You practiced and built and decorated. You learned about the binomial theorem, the valences of chemical elements, and the art of getting along with other people. You yelled at pep sessions and games, and you rocked and rolled at sock hops. You had fun.

We have tried to capture and preserve with pictures and words part of the story of the 1956-1957 school year at BRADLEY-BOURBONNAIS COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL. We hope that in the years to come you will see and read and remember.

*But pleasures are like poppies spread,
You seize the flow'r, its bloom is shed;
Or like the snow falls in the river,
A moment white—then melts for ever;
Or like the borealis race,
That flit ere you can point their place;
Or like the rainbow's lovely form
Evanishing amid the storm.—
Nae man can tether time or tide . . .*

—ROBERT BURNS
from "Tam O'Shanter"

Principal's Message

Along with the theme of your book of the year, "Moments to Remember," we would like to call your attention to a few thoughts relating to your school year. We hope that you will remember the many pleasant things that have happened to you. They did not just happen—you, through your right way of doing things, brought about pleasant incidents. You possibly remember some incidents that were not so pleasant, such as being needlessly late or absent, or failing to do necessary assignments. Memories of these events are not so pleasant.

These things have all been steps in learning how to live with people. Let us hope that we have learned by the things done well to continue them in that manner and by those not done well to have improved ourselves for the future.

S. A. SMITH

Students must acquire points from participation in dramatic activities to be eligible for membership. A new class of candidates is formally initiated toward the end of the second semester.

This year the troupe co-sponsored, with the Dramatics Club, a three act play, "Cinderella" and participated in a one-act Christmas play, "Song in the Night." They presented a guest assembly at Thornton Fractional High School on February 11. They also gave a record dance on February 1. Members of the troupe also participate in the speech contests sponsored by the Illinois State High School Press Association.

David Lunsford is president; Bruce Reeves, vice president; Pat Taggart, secretary; and Dokie Arvanetes, treasurer. Advisor for the troupe is Miss Stelter.

Varsity Club

Varsity Club is a service organization sponsored by Mr. Lemon and Mr. Nafziger. To be eligible a member must win a varsity letter in a major sport. Its purpose is to promote better attitudes toward sports. This year the club sold pens and pencils and Christmas trees to raise funds. They bought an ice-chest and a walkie-talkie and paid for the filming of football games.

Ed Moersch is president; Bruce Reeves, vice president; Wayne Sims, secretary; and Harold Emme, treasurer.

Advanced Journalism

Advanced Journalism is not a club—it is a class. It is also the staff which produced this BRADLEYAN. Composed of students who took journalism last year, the staff had no specific responsibilities. They all did the things which had to be done. Producing a yearbook is a full year's job from the start of the sales campaign in the fall to the distribution of books in the spring. Mr. Zimmerman is the advisor and teacher of the group.

Student Council

Student Council works with the faculty in formulating rules for student conduct and in solving general school problems. It approves budgets of all school organizations and makes an advisory report to the principal. It assists with the sponsoring of all school activities. It seeks to strengthen relations with other schools.

This year the Student Council sponsored Homecoming, Twirp Week, and a student field day. It also raised over $100 to send a ton of CARE to Korea, India, Israel, Hungary, and Egypt.

Officers for the following year are elected in the spring as the climax of a vigorous campaign. Last year's election resulted in the election of Tom Wieliczko as president and Ed Moersch as vice president from the Senior ticket and to Carol Martin as secretary and Carol Davidson as treasurer from the Junior slate. Representatives to Student Council are elected by classes, the number of representatives depending on the size of the class. Advisors are Mrs. Moore and Mr. Canham.

Larry Huggins, Sophomore Candidate for President, is trying to convince the students that he is the best qualified for the job.

Tom Wieliczko, Junior Candidate for President, seems to be saying, "Don't you agree that the Junior Candidates are the best."

Activities

STUDENTS AT BBCHS ARE BUSY PEOPLE. They have club meetings, dances, plays, contests, parties, and many other projects to help them spend their extra time. Some of their activities are new to our school this year, while others, like Homecoming with its Queen and court, are traditional.

"To Blush Unseen"

"To Blush Unseen," a three-act comedy, was presented by the Class of 1956 on April 26 and 27. A prologue and an epilogue framed the action of the play. In the prologue an FBI agent, ably done by Andy Andrews, reports to his chief about certain peculiar incidents at Sweetberry College.

Carl Koerner was a college student with an affinity for trouble, and his girl friend, whose feminine curiosity got her into trouble, was acted by Karen Emme. Don Lytle and Steve Goudreau were friends of Carl's who went to any length to help their pal. Susie Sagorske was a girl who talked too much until Steve found a way to shut her up. Mary Floyd and Leta Pence were coeds, Sharon Mulligan was a mail clerk, and Darlene Hensley bounced in as a new girl in the college.

Boyd Fees was the college president, and Terry Hebert was a hirsute psychologist from the state hospital. The part of an "A" student in chemistry whose zeal for research caused an uproar on the campus was played on one night by Diane VadeBoncor and on the next, by Beverly Brosseau. Beverly Osenga and Barbara Scott likewise alternated in the role of Dean of Women.

The play was directed by Miss Stelter.

"Father Knows Best"

"Father Knows Best," the Junior play, was presented November 15 and 16. Based on the radio and television show, the play concerned the problems of a typical American family in a typical American community. Danny Robertson played the title role of the father, Jim Anderson, who is an insurance salesman, and Thais Swain played the part of Mrs. Anderson.

Their eighteen-year-old daughter, Betty, whose urge to go dancing with a new boy at school puts the play in motion, was alternately played by Pamela Metz and Jolene LaPlante. Alice Adams and Judy Jepsen played Betty's friends, Janie and Ramona, with Jolene, and with Pamela the parts were taken by Dokie Arvanetes and Doris Keys.

Sandra Coty was ten-year-old Kathy Anderson, and Carol Martin and Margie Gifford took turns in being Kathy's friend, Patty Davis, who stays overnight. Steve LaGessee as Bud Anderson and Daryl Bertrand as his friend get into trouble with the washing machine repairman, played by Ken Brasel.

Bob Pettit played Ralph, the new boy, whose interest in Betty is suspected by Mr. Anderson, and Max Williams played Mr. Brinkworth, Ralph's father, to whom Mr. Anderson is trying to sell a large insurance policy. Carol Davidson, Florence Douglass, and Deanna Reiniche were the ladies of Mrs. Anderson's garden club at one performance, and Lois Nees, Janice Gulczynski, and Brenda Dubble took these parts at the other.

Don Robards was Officer Johnson of Missing Persons, who came to investigate the disappearance of Ralph and Betty, and Mary Milakovich and Bonnie Feller each played the part of Perkins, the police matron, who brings Ralph and Betty home.

The play was directed by Miss Stelter.

"Cinderella"

A famous fairy tale came to life when the Drama Club and Thespians presented a three-act version of "Cinderella" on Thursday evening, January 10. A special children's matinee was performed on Saturday afternoon.

Although many of the cast had never had any previous dramatic experience, all of them did well in their respective parts. Celeste Wieliczko had the title role, and Syd Jensen was her prince charming.

Diane Falkenhan played the stepmother, and Janet Pierson and Donna Kay Boudreau were the stepsisters. Earl Kelly was Roland, attendant to the prince, and Judy Robbins was Felicia, a lady of the court, who helped the prince and Roland. Amber McCarthy played the fairy godmother. A comic touch was provided by Gary Betourne and Ed Virgin, who as Galafron and Curdkin, conspired against the prince.

Darlene Bond took the part of the queen mother. Eugene Lockwood was the court herald, and J. B. Pence, as the court page, carried the queen's train and, later, the famous slipper.

Miss Stelter directed the play.

A boy or girl participating in band has the experience of being an integral part of a group and of learning that their own position in the group is determined by their own individual efforts. In this way they learn to be democratic and to take their place in our present day society.

The band also provides entertainment for the public and acts as a public relations agent for our school.

Varsity Football

With a season's record of seven wins, one loss, and one tie, the BOILERMAKERS were co-champions in football in the Wil-Ro-Kee conference.

They traveled to Pontiac for the opening game of the 1956 season and battled the Indians to a 0-0 tie in this non-conference tilt. In their first conference game the BRADLEYANS invaded St. Anne, but they were repulsed by the Cardinals 18-13 in the surprise upset of the schedule. At Morris the BOILERMAKERS won a non-conference game 6-0, and a Homecoming crowd saw them romp over Gilman 19-6. Next the BRADLEYANS defeated St. Patrick Central, the other leading conference contender, by a score of 19-0.

Next the team visited Crete to win 13-0, and the following week they journeyed to Momence to win 13-7 late in the fourth quarter. They won 13-0 over Central in the final conference game. In the last game of the season against non-conference Wilmington the BOILERMAKERS came through again, with a score of 20-19.

Ronnie King leads his co-captain Jim Regnier around right end in the Bradley-St. Pat's game, which Bradley won 19-0.

1957 Wil-Ro-Kee Basketball Champions

The BOILERMAKERS won 18 basketball games and lost 6 of the 24 they played before they entered the Regional Tournament at Kankakee. They won the Wil-Ro-Kee conference championship in 11 games and then went on to win the twelfth against Gilman. They were the first team to end the season without a loss in the conference. They also won the Bradley Invitational Tournament.

All losses were in non-conference play. The BOILERMAKERS lost to Bloom of Chicago Heights in their opening game of the season, to Danville, to Quincy and Robinson in the Centralia Holiday Tournament, to Quincy again on the latter's floor, and to Watseka in their last scheduled game.

They won four non-conference games, defeating their traditional rival, Kankakee, and also Morris, Canton, and Peotone, and they defeated Braidwood and Woodland in the Bradley Tournament.

In the Regional Tournament at Kankakee the BOILERMAKERS defeated Momence 76-55, and they lost to Central 50-55.

The 1956 Track Team entered five triangular meets and was host to the first annual Bradley Relays and the Wil-Ro-Kee freshman-sophomore and varsity track meets.

In the district meet Bob Messier placed third in the broad jump, and Clarence Schultz came in fourth in the 880-yard run.

The girls shown above helped at home meets, the Bradley Relays, and the conference meets, by measuring distance in the high jump, broad jump, pole vault, discus, and shot put, and by holding the tape at the finish line in races, and by compiling and computing statistics and results.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1957

Prophecy

Tomorrow, May 27, I graduate from high school. The time sure went fast. I was just thinking about my fellow classmates, and what they would be like if we were to have a reunion in 30 years. I can't imagine—Oh well, I'm so sleepy anyhow that I can hardly keep my eyes open.

Just about everybody in the class of '57 is here! Say, there's PAT TAGGART and PEGGY KING—haven't seen them in coon's age. They have opened up an Eskie Mo Twirling School, "Tusk-a-Twirl Institute." One lesson is entitled "Twirling Tusks on the Tips of of Your Pinkies." They are talking to EVELYN DELONAI, who is trying to sell them one of her do-it-yourself Voodoo Kits. What do you know! Over there is Senator BOB "Sticky" SWINFORD, and he's trying to convince someone that the senate should pass a bill to legalize National Finger Bowl Week. I see he's talking to SID JOHNSON, president of Vaseline College, where you just slip through.

Over there is a little group talking. Let's see—there is RAY LONGTIN, OSCAR PETERSON, and JIM LABARGE. RAY's telling them that he quit as the executioner at Statesville. Seems that RAY just couldn't get the hang of it. JIM, who operates an elderly ladies home, is listening to OSCAR, who is trying to sell a bottle of "Pickled Puss," the ingredients of which are one dead cat soaked in vinegar. As usual, BRUCE REEVES, a well-known explorer, is surrounded by girls asking for more facts about his latest book, Parks I Have Known. GARY ANDERSON is showing everyone his latest painting, "The Moaning Lisa." EDITH JOPLIN and TONY CALABRIA are in deep conversation over their latest business deal. TONY is a chimney sweep for the JOPLIN gas and oil company.

Part of the entertainment at this gathering is furnished by BILL MAIER, who is the chief drummer with the "Monkey Mambo Bongo Band." ED MOERSCH and RAY COCHAND are standing close to the band shaking the monkeys' tails. ED is the president of the Meadowview Park Taxi and Tour Company. RAY is associated with a factory that manufacturers muzzles for muscular dogs. BARB STOPHER seems to be resting on one of the alligator couches she repairs at her upholstery shop. DEBORAH CHARBONNEAU is entertaining the group with one of her Mambo Jambo dances; she teaches the Mambo at Arthur Murray's.

Over in the corner, SIGRID CONKLIN, who makes "No Doze Tablets," is trying to wake up CAROL BROS-

COYER, who is a model in JIM LAVENDER'S Ladies Apparel Shop, is helping revive CAROL.

ROLAND DUCHENE and DICK PRAIRIE just walked in together. ROLAND is grounds-keeper at the K.K.K. state hospital; DICK bills himself as "Sabu, the Elephant Boy." LEN HISEL, County Superintendent of Schools, is trying to persuade RON KING (offensive center for the Greenbay Packers) to come back to BBCHS and coach. JACK MILLS, who is a taxi driver, just left the party to go and pick up MARILYN KIRCHNER, who is custodian of the city dump. JANICE WRIGHT, who is an interpretative dancer, is interpreting a few dances to the music of O'TOOL's Orthopedic Orchestra. CHARLIE is directing the conglomeration, and there's BILL BOCK playing the piccolo and JIM ROBERTS on the bass fiddle.

KAREN WRIGHT, who is an eminent Russian composer, is asking the orchestra to play a few of her latest song hits, such as: "Siberian Sunset," "Let's Bomb It Up," "Wake the Town and Kill the People," and "The Mutual Ammunition Society." LARRY BAILEY, a professional horse shoe pitcher, is demonstrating his skill to a few of the people. By the way, LARRY uses horse shoes with the horses still on them.

HILARY WITT just dropped in to visit for a while. HILARY operates the non-stop Alterf-Warner Bridge subway. DONNA MEANS is trying to make a deal with HILARY to ship some of her meatballs out to Warner Bridge. DONNA produces "Mother Mean's Marvelous Meatballs for Miserable Married Men." JIM MAJORS, "Boy Spot-Welding King," is laughing about something with ROGER BARWEGAN. ROGER builds strong muscles and sells them to his friends. I see KEN ANDERSON over there—he is still at BBCHS, teaching modern dance to the girls' P.E. classes.

LEON ADAMS is over in a corner, grinning like a Cheshire cat. LEON is happily married and lives in the second story over a vacant lot. JANE HESTER wasn't able to make the reunion; she is still over in Africa searching for the lost Ubangi tribe. ARMAND PARIS, Bradley police chief, is trying to pin something on BOB McCARTY. BOB is the boss of Mac's Mangy Monsters, the gang that's been terrorizing Meadowview Park. Right now ARMAND is only chasing BOB across the floor—all he wants is just the facts.

Dr. JERRY SIKES is demonstrating his new cure for people who chew their toenails. Trying to out-sell

JERRY is JIM REGNIER, who sells lawn mowers in Hawaii. He's mumbling something about grass skirts.

PAT WALTERS, who writes biographies, is writing one about CHARLES SCHULTZ, famous flower grower. CLANCY just won a prize for his pampered, pastel petunias.

Good ole EM' WAKAT and JUDY WILSON are still at it, after all these years. They play opposite in Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. What's this? EM is playing Juliet, and JUDY is playing Romeo!

RUTH EBY just stepped on the stage. She models bathing suits for Junior Achievement calendars. WALTER WATT is the next entertainer—he sings the sob, sob blues in the Chez Paris. His latest big hit is "Oh Watt, a Beautiful Mourning." The next person that is slated to entertain at our reunion is TOM WIELICZKO, TOM can currently be seen in movie that is a sequel to Gone with the Wind, entitled She Blew That-a-Way. Speaking of entertainers, RITA MURPHY is now singing in the Metropolitan Opera, and MARY "Steamy" THALACKER has a night club act called "Sit and Steam with Steamy."

ANNETTE PELTIER is on the refreshment committee. She's serving pizza the way she did when she first opened her pizza palace in Lower Slobbovia 25 years ago. KAR-MEN FORD is filling up on pizza and letting WAYNE RANTZ know why he opened a tree trimming service in the middle of the Mojave Desert. WAYNE is the founder of B.P.C.P.C.P.A., or the Berry pickin', Chicken Pluckin', Cotton Pickers Anonymous. Speaking of names, JOANNE CONN is writing poetry under the pen name of "Author Unknown." She must be doing well, for I've seen a lot of her poems.

RON HILL just gave SYD JENSEN a traffic ticket for driving his space ship too fast. RON is an interplanetary traffic engineer. SYD is manufacturing glass slippers in the hopes that someday he'll find "Cinderella." While we're on the subject of law enforcement, I found out that MARCIA JOHNSON is a detective in Los Angeles. She's known to the underworld as "Tuesday."

BOB KIRK is giving a bull fighting demonstration. BOB is a matador in Mexico, and DAVE LUNSFORD raises the bulls for him.

It looks as though SHARON McQUILLIN and LINDA MORRIS are in a corner talking over business problems. I guess SHARON is afraid that with a new cure for bald headedness invented by PHYLLIS WRIGHT, she may be forced out of the wig business. LINDA is having trouble keeping salt in the saltshaker. You see, she is vice president in charge of table No. 9 at Walgreens. The GUISTI brothers, JOE and RICH, are touring the world with their medicine show, "Guisti's Gismos for Graying Grandmothers."

NANCY BLEKFELD, owner of Blekfeld's Blimps, is helping her test pilot, PAT SCHULTZ, inflate one of her model blimps.

We have a lot of classmates who become authors. For instance, LOIS HARMON, eminent child psychologist, who has just finished a book entitled, How to Raise Children with a Whip and Chair. Included in LOIS's book is a supplement on feeding children by EVELYN MEYERS, who tastes food at Betty Crocker's. While we're on the topic of food, someone told me that MARILYN BASS has gone into the fish business. Her slogan is "You can be sure it's Fishy, if it comes from Bass." SHIRLEY BERNER works for Marilyn—she removes the eyes from wall-eyed pikes.

BOB PRINCE is demonstrating his new invention to DAVE REEDY. BOB's invention is a fountain pen that fills with water and writes under ink. DAVE has a lot of responsibility in the stock market. He feeds the hogs and cattle in the Chicago stock yards.

During his days at Bradley, KENNY POSING was a pitcher on the baseball team. Now KENNY is a top-notch pitcher at the Chicago Cream and Pitcher Co. TOM RAY just stopped by for the party. TOM is a hot rod racer, but he's had tough luck lately. He said "My perpetual motion car drove fine, but then it stopped, and all because my rubber band popped." SAUNDRA STEARNS has developed into quite an athlete. She won the last Olympics division of tiddly-winks—of course, she plays the game with man hole covers.

JOHN MARTH still lives on the farm, where he raises "Goober Peas." JERRY BALTHAZOR is the U. S. Marble Champ. He's so good that to keep the sides fair he uses bowling balls instead of marbles.

PAULA NAAS has just perfected a product for people who get water up their noses when they go swimming. It's called "Naas's Nostril Numbers." RENEE GOUDREAU is selling some of her cookies — "Goudreau's Goodies." PHYLLIS THORN works with RENEE in making pastry products. PHYLLIS has her own special favorite called "chocolate cookies with little white stuff stuck between them."

BETTY SISNEY is president of the National Embalming School. Her slogan is "You kill 'em; we chill 'em." LOUISE SOMMER and PAT WILKINS are BETTY'S assistants. They were saying something about the National Embalming School being the last one to let you down.

RON NEES is giving a speech on the life of a bachelor. RON is president of the bachelor club of America.

I must have dozed off. You would never guess what I dreamed—I thought I was at our class reunion, and I . . . Well, never mind, you wouldn't believe it anyway. I hope I graduate tomorrow, so I'd better quit and hit the sack.

YOU probably recognize some A. O. Smith products — like famous Permaglas water heaters (glass-lined to eliminate rust) ... or Permaglas home heating and cooling systems. They make an important contribution to the convenience and comfort of modern living.

Equally important are A. O. Smith products you're not likely to see — products that work behind the scenes. These would include electric motors (hermetic and other types) for many appliances and tools you use at home or at work ... automobile frames for safer, more agile cars ... pipe for the lines that transport natural gas and petroleum products from well-site to you ... many other products for home, farm and industry that work behind the scenes to make America strong and prosperous.
